For the 1st Nordic MDS and MPN Educational Meeting and Scientific Symposium

Program and registration information will follow shortly. Complimentary accommodation and meals, and travel grants will become available.

The Nordic MDS Group and the Nordic MPN Study Group are teaming up and bringing in international experts to the 1st edition of the Nordic MDS and MPN Educational Meeting and Scientific Symposium. The meeting will take place in Copenhagen on November 17-18, 2022, during the Nordic MDS Group Spring meeting, and will focus on research (day 1) and education (day 2) in MDS and MPN. The meeting is supported by a grant from the Novo Nordisk Foundation.

Advance your knowledge and experience and meet your Nordic colleagues.

We look forward to seeing you in Copenhagen!
